The Union and the Employer agree that any and all alleged violations of the Statement of Commitment remain subject to progressive discipline principles, and the just cause and grievance and arbitration provisions of the Collective Agreement.

Changes to the Statement of Commitment require the mutual agreement of the Union and the Employer.

The “Companion” to the Statement of Commitment is not part of the Collective Agreement and shall not be referred to by the Employer with respect to members of this Bargaining Unit.

ARTICLE 5: SPECIFIC PENALTIES

7:04 The Employer will provide an environment where members of the Bargaining Unit are not subjected workplace violence or harassment. The Employer and Union agree that every employee has a right to a workplace free of harassment, discrimination, reprisal and retaliation. A meeting shall be arranged by the Designated Authority within three (3) working days of receiving the grievance. Either Party may request the presence of the grievor and the Union Steward at the meeting. The Designated Authority shall give his/her answer in writing to the Local Union President without undue delay but not later than five (5) working days after the said meeting.

* Designated Authority (see Schedule VIII)

Step Three

- 18.05 If the grievance is not settled at Step Two, a written grievance may be referred to the Coordinator, People Team or Designate by the Local Union President within five (5) working days of receiving an answer in writing from the Designated Authority. Either Party may request the presence of the grievor, Union Steward, Local Union President and the CUPE National Representative, supervisor or Designated Authority to attend the meeting to present evidence or give assistance in the settlement of the grievance. A meeting shall be arranged by the Coordinator, People Team or Designate with the Local Union President within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance in order to resolve the dispute. The Coordinator, People Team or Designate shall give his/her reply in writing within five (5) working days if the grievance is not settled at this meeting.

Policy or Group Grievance

- 18.06 A grievance of the Employer, or a policy or group grievance of the Union, which is distinguished from an individual employee's grievance, must be sent by registered mail or be personally delivered to the Coordinator, People Team or Designate or to the Local Union President, as the case may be, within fifteen (15) working days after the occurrence of the matter which is the subject of the grievance. The Parties shall meet to discuss any such grievance within ten (10) working days, then either Party may notify the other Party in writing within a further period of five (5) working days, that it intends to proceed to arbitration. Such notification shall contain details of the grievance, a statement of the exact matter in dispute and a statement of the relief sought from an arbitrator.

The Coordinator, People Team or Designate shall meet with the Local Union President and the grievor within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance. Either Party may request the presence of the grievor, Union Steward, Local Union President and the CUPE National Representative, supervisor or Designated Authority to attend the meeting to present evidence or give assistance in the settlement of the grievance. If the grievance is not settled at this meeting, then either Party may notify the other in writing within a further period of five (5) working days after the date of the meeting that it intends to proceed to arbitration as hereinbefore set out.

ARBITRATION

- 18:08 If the grievance is not settled after having been duly and properly processed in accordance with the Grievance Procedure, then either Party may notify the other within a further period of ten (10) working days after receiving the written reply that it intends to proceed to arbitration. The notice of intention to proceed to arbitration shall contain the details of the grievance, a precise statement of the matter in dispute, a statement of the actual remedy sought by the Party from an arbitrator and the name and address of the Party's nominee as arbitrator.
- 18:09 The Party who receives the notice of intention to proceed to arbitration shall either accept the proposed nominee as arbitrator or notify the other Party of the name and address of the Party's nominee as arbitrator within ten (10) working days after receiving the notice. If the Parties are unable to agree upon the selection of an arbitrator within a period of ten (10) working days after the second proposal of an arbitrator, either Party shall then have the right to request the Ministry of Labour for Ontario to appoint an arbitrator.
- 18:10 Each Party shall jointly and equally bear the fees and expenses of the single arbitrator.
- 18:11 No grievance may be submitted to a single arbitrator, or be dealt with by a single arbitrator unless it has been properly carried through all of the required steps of the grievance and arbitration procedures.
- 18:12 The Parties are committed to the early settlement of grievances and as such mutually agree that the process of grievance mediation is a valuable tool in arriving at mutually agreeable grievance settlements. In this regard the Parties agree that subject to mutual agreement on a "case by case" basis, grievances may be referred to private grievance mediation prior to the grievance being heard by a sole arbitrator as set out in this collective agreement. In such circumstances the Parties shall by mutual agreement select the grievance mediation company and they shall jointly and equally bear the fees the expenses of the mediator.

Authority of the Arbitrator to Deal with a Disciplinary or Discharge Grievance

- 18:13 In the event an arbitrator properly deals with a matter relating to discharge or other disciplinary action, then the arbitrator has the authority to reinstate the employee with or without compensation for wages and any other benefits lost or to make any other award they may deem just in the event that there has been a violation of this Agreement by the Employer.

Authority of the Arbitrator

- 18:14 Any arbitrator shall not have any authority to make a decision which is inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement nor to add to or amend any of the terms of this Agreement. The jurisdiction of the arbitrator shall be strictly confined to dealing with the issue in dispute between the Parties.
- 18:15 The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Parties.
